DIGITEC OPENS BRANCH OFFICE IN WASHINGTON D.C.

ORLANDO, Fla. – May 23, 2003 – Digitec, an award-winning digital media design and production company, announced today that it has opened an office in Washington, D.C. to better serve its federal government clients.

Digitec has appointed Annette Fekete to head the Washington office. Fekete comes with 15 years of instructional design experience working directly with such federal agencies as the US Inspection Service and the US Post Office, as well as prime contractors TRW and LCC International.

Jack McGrath, president of Digitec Interactive said, “As a GSA contract holder, Digitec is attuned to the special needs of federal government agencies. Having a Washington office led by someone of Annette’s caliber will enable us to better serve these clients and increase our presence in that market space.”

Digitec also has an office in San Juan, Puerto Rico, in addition to its headquarters in Orlando.
